2. Advances of Chiefs of Station: Mr. Helms buzzed me and asked if we would review the system of advances to Chiefs of Station so that when these advances became excessive and overdue the matter could be noted and a proper report made to the DDCI. I met with Jack Earman and [REDACTED] A system by which this can be accomplished is in effect but needs further implementation. I directed [REDACTED] to submit a paper on this matter. The records of the Chiefs of Station have been extremely good in this area with just several chronic offenders.
